

What I Claim is:

B.I.

1. A pool which floats on the sea:

said pool characterized by using deep-sea water and being equipped with a device for collecting deep-sea water.

2. A pool which floats on the sea:

said pool characterized by using deep-sea water and being equipped with a device for collecting deep-sea water; and being moored at a fixed location by a mooring devices such as an anchor.

3. A pool which floats on the sea:

said pool characterized by using deep-sea water, and being equipped with a device for collecting deep-sea water and with a propulsion device such as a propeller.

4. A pool being placed in shore, characterized by being equipped with a deep-sea water collecting device.

5. Accommodating facilities being constructed in shore, characterized by being equipped with an equipment for the deepsea water supply, connected to a pipe of the deep-sea water collecting device.

